Disinvestment of Bhilai Steel Plant

*413. SHRI SANJAY NIRUPAM: Will the Minister of DISINVESTMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are planning to disinvest Bhilai Steel Plant;

(b) if so, the reasons therefor;

(c) whether Bhilai Steel Plant is making profit; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF DISINVESTMENT (SHRI ARUN SHOURIE): (a) and (b) Bhilai Steel Plant (BSP) is a unit of Steel Authority of India Limited (SAIL) which is incurring heavy losses, and at present there is no proposal to disinvest Government's equity in SAIL. Government has approved a financial-cum business restructuring package of SAIL during 1999-2000 which inter-alia consists of waiver of loans sanctioned by the Government and by Steel Development Fund and includes disinvestment of the non-core units namely Captive Power Plant-II (CPP-II) and Oxygen Plant-2 of Bhilai Steel Plant. Disinvestment of the power plant of Bhilai has been completed.

(c) and (d) BSP's profits have been diminishing before financial restructuring, details of which for the last three years are given below:—

(Rupees in crore)

	1997-98	1998-99	1999-2000
Net Profit	701	301	92

Incentives for speedy disposal of court cases

*414. SHRIMATI SAROJ DUBEY: Will the Minister of LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have formulated any scheme for giving incentives for speedy disposal of court cases;

(b) if so, the details thereof alongwith its area of operation;

(c) the number of cases pending relating to senior citizens in various courts in Delhi; and

(d) the measures Government propose to take for their early disposal?

THE MINISTER OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI ARUN JAITLEY): (a) No, Madam.

(b) Does not arise.

(c) The Supreme Court has expressed its inability to furnish the exact number of cases pertaining to senior citizens pending in the Supreme Court. However, the Supreme Court has issued instructions to its Registry to make efforts to identify the matters relating to older persons and get them disposed of on priority.

In the High Court of Delhi, 62 cases pertaining to senior citizens are pending.

In the District Courts in the NCT of Delhi, 2791 cases involving senior citizens are pending.
